

Stanley is a graduate in a Master's in Business Administration at UJ(University of Johannesburg) Business School, Postgraduate in Management Practices from Henley Business School, Postgraduate Diploma in Risk Management in Markets from Unisa, BCom in Accounting Science from Unisa, a NQF 6 Certificate in Introduction to Thought Leadership for Africa's Renewal and a NQF 6 Certificate in Africa & International Trade both from TMALI (Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute) through UNISA. Currently he is the Managing Director of ShakesShem(Pty) Ltd.

He is always eager for a challenge in the different fields within his industry of consulting, focusing more on Management of land claims, legal advisory, project management, strategic support for rural communities, arranging and executing evictions on farm lands in collaboration with private farmers and SAPS. We have executed land project in the following provinces, KZN, Gauteng, Mpumalanga, Limpopo and North West. He strives in ensuring that his client always have a competitive advantage in the market place by using different collaborative methods.